WAS WELL KNOWN THROUGH-OUT THE WEST.

(Special to The Herald.) Orrville, O., June 12 .- David S. Taggart, formerly of Salt Lake City, died here last night or early this morning. His body was found in bed at 10 o'clock; It is believed that the cause of death was the taking of an overdose of bromide in an attempt to alleviate the rate of speed. Some are ducks, some pain caused by the unhealed wound of an operation for the amputation of the The accident in which Mr. Taggart lost his leg occurred in Salt Lake City. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morrow Taggart, and was

by a widow and a son.

Fifteen years ago he came to Salt Lake to enter the employ of the Oregon Short Line. He served faithfully that system, and left only when a better opportunity presented itself. He went to Reno, where, from his headquarters, he directed the agents who are under the supervision of the district freight and passenger agent. He resigned his position for the benefit of his health. Only a few months ago he left for his old home in Ohio, whence comes the sudden news of his death. His wife last night passed through Ogden on her way to the place where her husband

Mr. Taggart was one of the most popular railroad men in the west. His acquaintance was extended among business men. For a time Mr. Taggart had everything to do with the Commercial club at Reno, and for it he did excellent service until his health began to fail. He and his wife are the parents of a lovable boy, who is now 11 years of age.

David Taggart was the brother of Captain Taggart, who figured in a sensational divorce case.
